NEW JERSEY

Shanghai Jazz

Madison, NJ

Combining a world-class restaurant and jazz venue, Shanghai Jazz has hosted some stellar talent, including saxophonist Harry Allen, vocalist Sarah Partridge and drummer Bernard Purdie. In business since 1995, Shanghai Jazz upholds jazz tradition and offers exquisite dining.

shanghaijazz.com

NEW YORK

55 Bar

New York, NY

This beloved bar has hosted some of the city's most innovative players, from Wayne Krantz and Zach Danziger to Mike Stern and Nate Wood. Jazz is heard here two or three nights a week, with blues and funk rounding out the schedule. This popular Greenwich Village haven fills up fast, so come early.

55bar.com

Birdland

New York, NY

The original Birdland dominated 52nd Street in the '40s, moved to the Upper West Side in the '90s, and today is firmly planted in Manhattan's theater district, not far from Times Square. Then as now, some of the finest jazz players in the world can be heard in this spacious club. Performers in January include Kurt Elling, Stacey Kent and John Pizzarelli with Jessica Molaskey.

birdlandjazz.com

Blue Note

New York, NY

The Blue Note packs them in every night of the week, and avid jazz fans often have the opportunity to speak to the musicians after the set. There is consistently a dazzling lineup at this Greenwich Village hot spot: January brings Christian McBride, Antonio Sánchez and the Dizzy Gillespie All Stars. In February, it's Dee Dee Bridgewater and Bill Frisell.

bluenote.net

Dizzy's Club

New York, NY

Where else can you get a spectacular view of Central Park while hearing some of the greatest names in jazz? The large, beautifully appointed space is a crown jewel in the Jazz At Lincoln Center family, presenting jazz every night and Late Night Sessions for the adventurous. Bookings in January include Jimmy Cobb, Nelson Matta, Gonzalo Rubalcaba, Christian Sands and Benny Green.

jazz.org/dizzys

Fat Cat

New York, NY

Where should you go if your ping-pong, pool and shuffleboard skills are rusty but you're also up for some New York City jazz? Fat Cat is the place to exercise your hands, ears and soul, all in one relaxed Greenwich Village spot. Trio, ensemble and big band jazz performances are presented every night. Recent performers include David Weiss & Point of Departure, Willie Martinez y La Familia and the Ed Cherry Trio.

jazzstandard.com

(LE) POISSON ROUGE

New York, NY

Located in the same subterranean warren that once housed The Village Gate, LPR is renowned for its genre-bending ambitions, hosting jazz, classical, new music, avant-garde and indie rock. And like the Village Gate of the 1960s, LPR also hosts readings, comedy, film, DJs, theater and burlesque. Cyrille Aimée hits LPR's "Main Space" stage on Feb. 20.

lpr.com

Mezzrow

New York, NY

Tiny, tube-shaped, underground Mezzrow is a bit like revisiting the glory days of speakeasies and prohibition—but with fine acoustics. Residencies by guitarist Pasquale Grasso and various vocalists and pianists make the joint hum, while regular visits by artists like reedist Scott Robinson keep customers glued to their seats. Cozy and intimate, Mezzrow is the sound of old New York, today.

mezzrow.com

Minton's Playhouse

New York, NY

Founded in 1938 by the saxophonist Henry Minton in Harlem, the revived Minton's does its best to live up to its fabled namesake. Spacious yet intimate, Minton's is joined to the Cecil Steakhouse. The Jason Marsalis Big Band plays here frequently.

mintonsharlem.com
